NOTICE: You are advised that the proposed constitutional amendment may change, repeal or modify by implication or may be construed by some persons to change, repeal or modify by implication Section 290 of the Missouri Revised Statutes. All matter which is to be deleted included in its proper place enclosed in brackets and all new matter shown underlined, as follows:

Be it resolved by the people of the State of Missouri that the Constitution be amended as follows:

Under Article I, a new section is added to read as follows:

“36. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person, business, church, organization, or other lawful entity shall be required, either directly or indirectly, to render services, goods, or property, except for just compensation from the recipient, unless such is required through sentencing upon being duly convicted of a misdemeanor or felony. Any law, regulation, or act of this state which either alone or in combination with the law of another jurisdiction would result in the rendering of services, goods, or property without just compensation from the person receiving the services, goods, or property, except as punishment for a crime, shall be invalid.”
